3 Monitoring

Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham accepts that the use of email is a valuable business tool. However, misuse of this facility can have a negative impact upon employee productivity and the reputation of the business.

In addition, all of the University's email resources are provided for University business purposes as mentioned in Para 1.1 of the University IT Policy. Therefore, the University maintains the right to examine any systems and inspect any data recorded in those systems.

In order to ensure compliance with this policy, the company also reserves the right to use monitoring software in order to check upon the use and content of emails. Such monitoring is for legitimate purposes only and will be undertaken in accordance with a procedure agreed with users.

4 Sanctions

Where it is believed that an user has failed to comply with this policy, they will face the University's disciplinary procedure. If the user is found to have breached the policy, they will face a disciplinary penalty as decided by the Head of the Institution and the Human Resources Department of the University in consultation with the Head of the respective Department. The actual penalty applied will depend on factors such as the seriousness of the breach and the User's disciplinary record.

5 Agreement

All University employees, contractors or temporary staff who have been granted the right to use the University's email services are required to confirm their understanding and acceptance of this policy.
