Rules and Regulations of sports events:

I) Tug-off war (Boys & Girls):

- Matches will be conducted on a knockout basis. Initial rounds will have a single-elimination format, while the final will be played as a best-of-three.
- Prizes shall be awarded to the winners securing first and second places.

II) Uriyadi (Boys):

- A team consists maximum of 10 participants who in turn will hit the pot.
- Cumulative time will be recorded until the team breaks the third pot (Within three minutes). Team with shorter time will win. Maximum time duration will be three minutes.
- The participants should not throw the stick to break the pot which will be consider as foul.
- Prizes shall be awarded to the winners securing first and second places.

III) Lucky corner (Girls):

- There will be eight marked slots, numbered from 1 to 8.
- Participants shall move around the circle and, upon hearing the whistle, proceed to occupy a slot of their choice
- A randomly selected number will be announced, and the participants in that slot will be eliminated.
- The elimination process will continue until only three participants remain, who will be awarded prizes in reverse order, with the last remaining participant receiving the first prize

IV) Pole climbing (Boys):

- After the whistle, the participant must climb the 20-foot vertical pole and ring the bell positioned at its top.
- Each participant is allowed a single attempt, with a maximum time limit of two minutes.
- The time taken from the whistle blow to the ringing of the bell will be recorded as the score.
- The participant with the minimum time recorded will be considered the winner.
- Participants finishing in first, second, and third positions will be honoured with prizes.
