

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

United Against Ragging: Taking the Anti-Ragging Pledge

DATE: 12th August, 2025.

VENUE: AB1

THEME: Programme for taking the Anti-Ragging Pledge

An Anti-Ragging Pledge programme was made by the National Service Scheme (NSS) in AB1 to spread awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging and to ensure a safe and inclusive campus environment.

The session began with an inspiring speech by the NSS Programme Officer, Dr. Venkataraman Sir, who highlighted the importance of discipline, respect, and unity among students. He encouraged everyone to work together to maintain a ragging-free institution.

DR. D VENKATARAMAN, NSS PROGRAM COORDINATOR ADDRESSING THE STUDENTS

Following his address, all students assembled and took the Anti-Ragging Oath, pledging not to engage in or support ragging in any form and to promote mutual respect and cooperation. More than 150 students took the Anti-Ragging pledge and chose to abide by the rules.

The programme concluded successfully with active student participation, reinforcing their commitment to a healthy and ragging-free campus.