As part of the 70th Constitution Day Celebrations across the country, on 26th November, 2019, the Amrita NSS students (from all Units) participated in a half day session from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Acharya Hall, second floor, AB1. The event began with reading of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution and an oath taking, lead by the Professor, Students Welfare, DrShailendra. This was followed by the screening of a short film depicting the significant moments of the organization of the Indian Constituent Assembly upto the charter of the Constitution. After the movie, there was an open debate among all the students. The topics for debate were –

- 1) Is Article 19 (Right to Freedom) guaranteed by our Constitution taken into consideration the way it was meant by the Constitution makers during the present time?
- 2) “The Directive Principles of State Policy” constitute a comprehensive political, social and economic programme for a modern democratic welfare state” Do you agree or not?

There was a heated and very sensible debate among the students and some faculty members also participated in the debate.

The session came to an end with the rendering of the National Anthem.

Around 50 students participated in the Programme from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.

The students enthusiastically participated and voiced their views regarding various Constitutional issues and expressed their knowledge and seasoned opinions.
