The event 'DEBATE AND DISCUSS' on the topic "Is India truly Independent?" was organized on Saturday, August 15 2020.

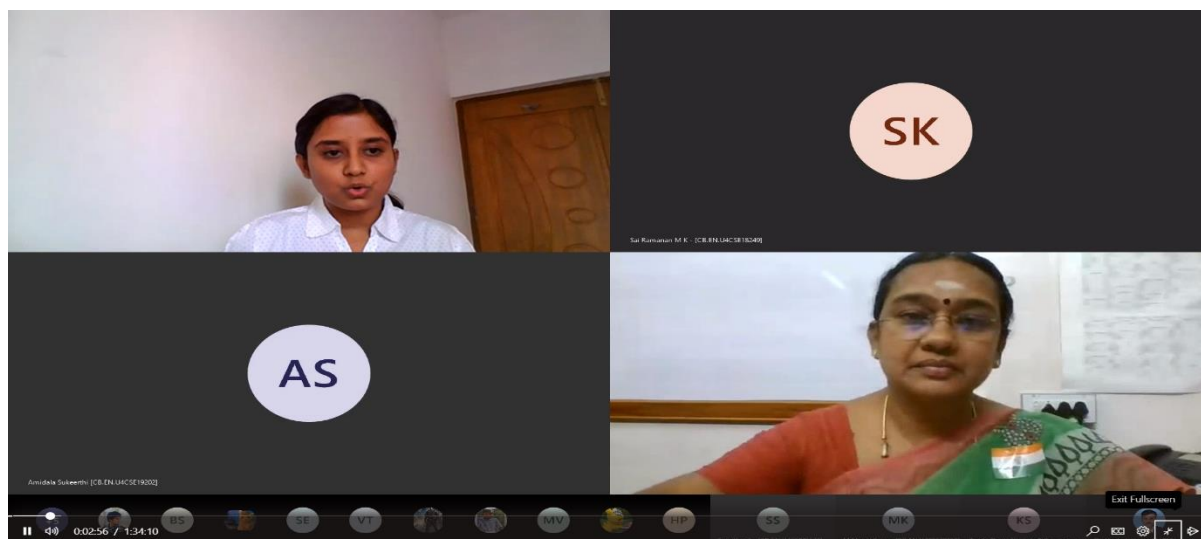

The guest of honour DR. Jhansi Rani P.R, the NSS programme coordinator Dr D Venkatraman and the participants were welcomed to the event by D Lathika.

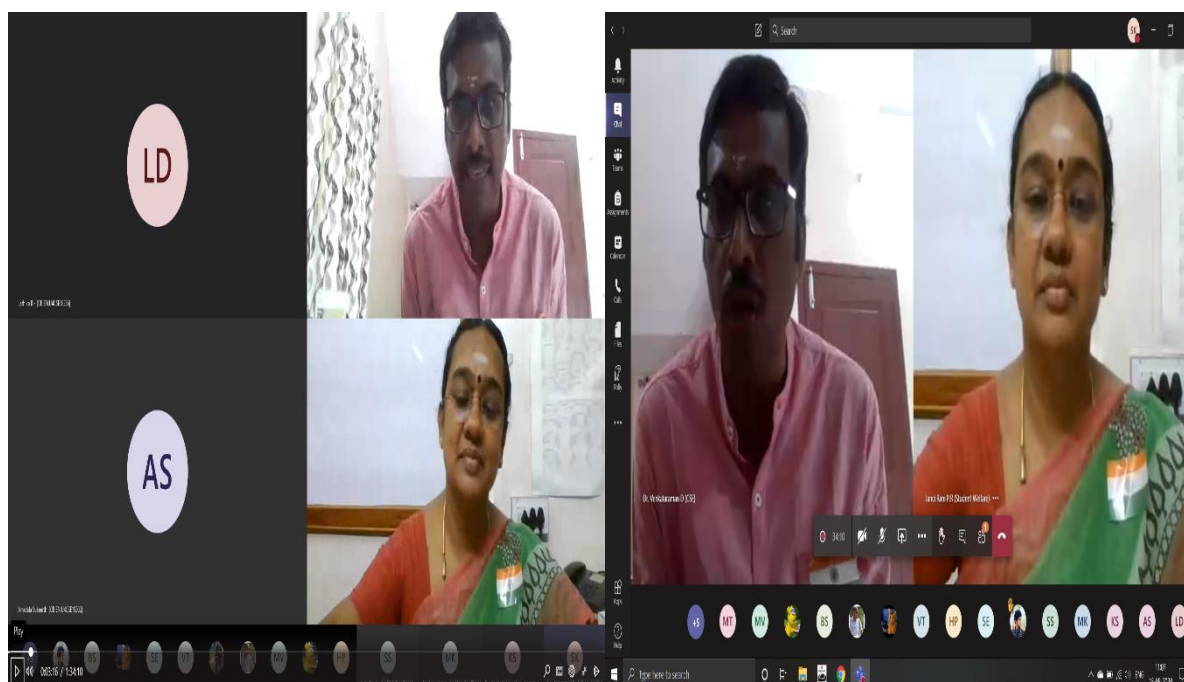

Followed by the welcome speech we had prayer to invoke the blessings of god.

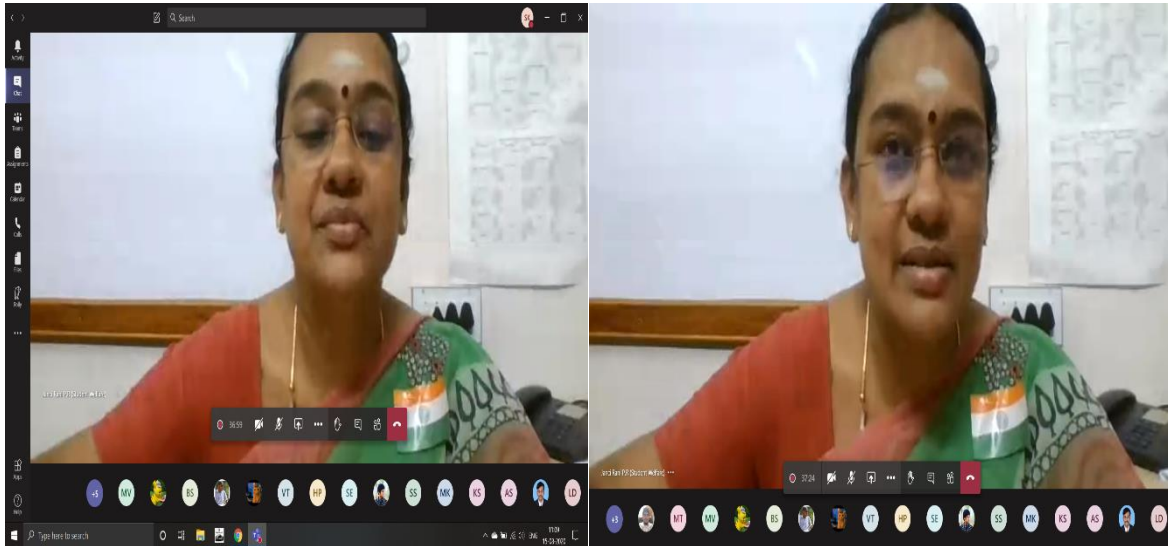

After that a brief introduction of the guest of honour and the NSS programme coordinator, was given by D Lathika.

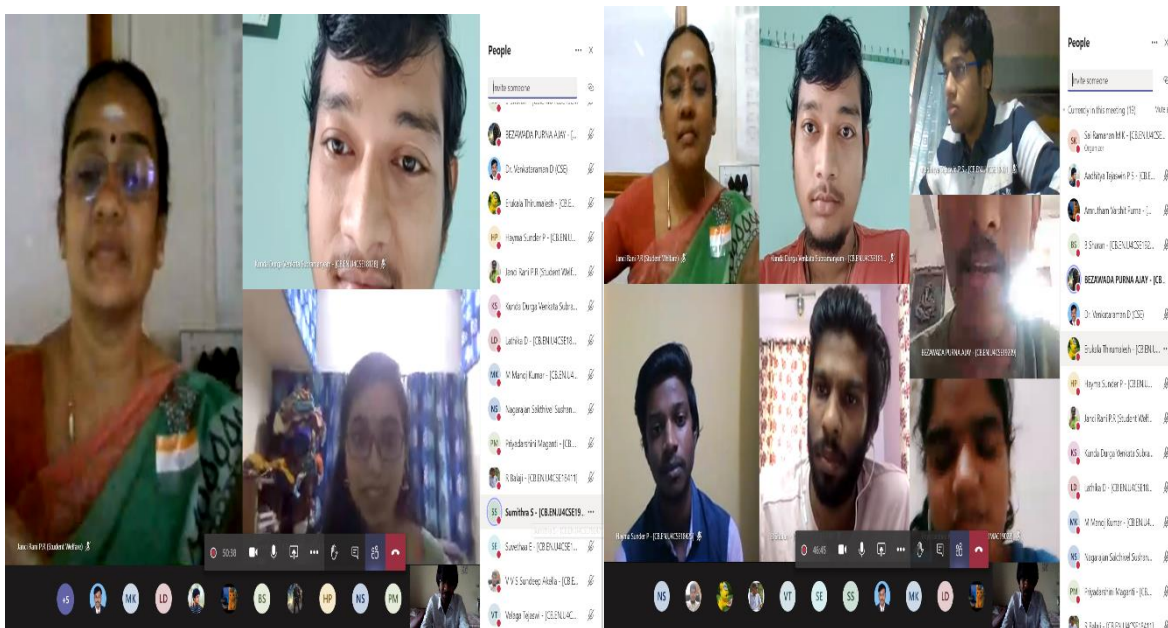

NSS programme coordinator Dr D Venkataraman sir welcomed the Guest of honour and advised the student participants to know about our country's history and rich culture on this occasion. He also asked the students to serve the country in all possible ways.

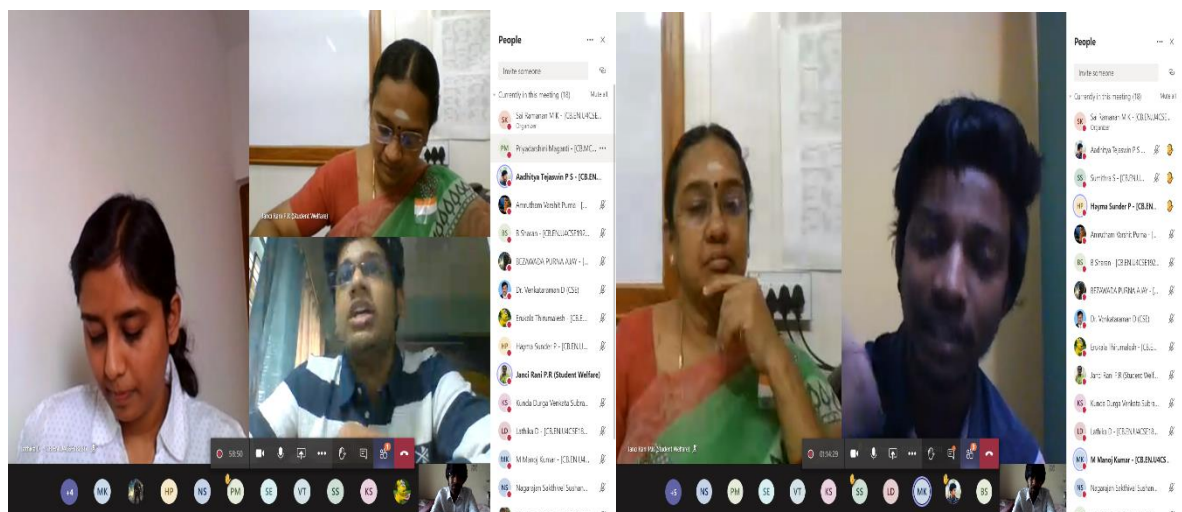

Following Venkataraman sir's speech the guest of honour Dr Jhansi Rani P R addressed the gathering by sharing her thoughts on what freedom is and how should people be more responsible in utilizing the freedom. She then declared the event open.

An ice breaking session was conducted for the participants before we dived into the discussion, where all the participants self-introduced themselves and shared the reason, that which fascinated them the most to join this event.

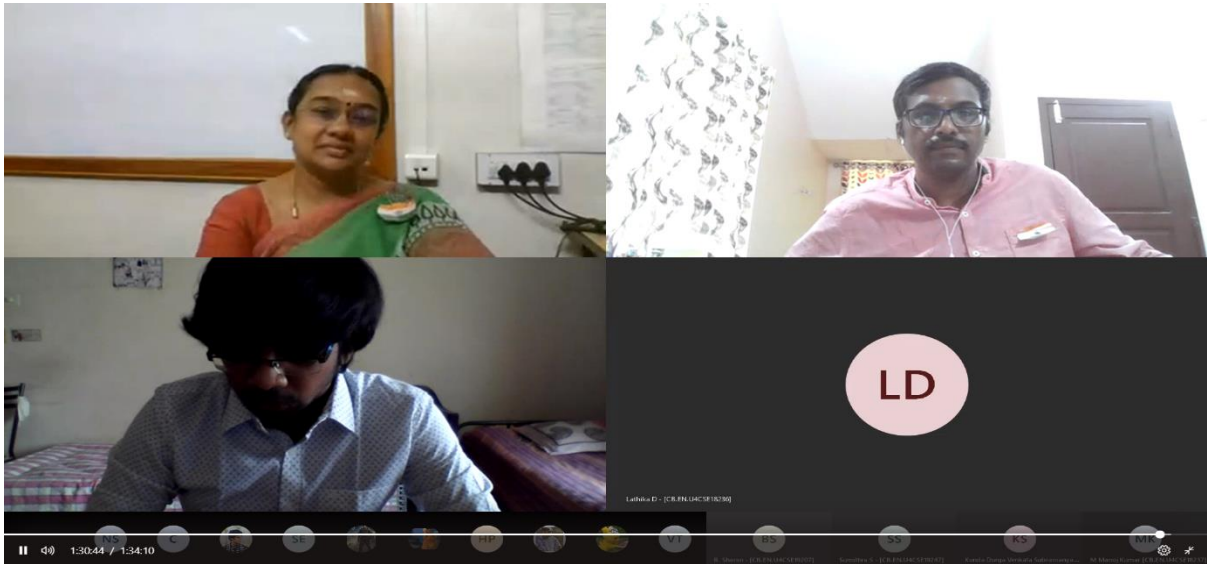

Then the discussion topic was briefly explained by D Lathika, and the forum was left open for discussion.

After the discussion was over among the participants, the guest of honour shared her own views on the topic and also discussed on the points put forth by the students during the time of discussion. She also gave solutions for making India a truly independent nation.

After the guest of honour's views on discussion and about the topic, vote of thanks was given by Sai Ramanan M K, in which Dr Jhansi Rani P R the guest of honour, NSS programme coordinator Dr D Venkataraman, the participants and the NSS event coordinators were thanked for their precious time and participation, thereby making this virtual event a success.

National Anthem was played for which everyone in the event raised and sung together showing their patriotism and respect to our motherland.
